Probationary Member Obligations

According to NHSC By-laws you are required to attend a minimum of three club activities in your first year. These activities include regular monthly meetings, Sunday Breakfast, shooting events, work parties or other social events. During your probationary year you are required to be an active member of one of the standing or special committees. Please indicate three committees you would be interested in below. Please note that the Executive Board of the New Haven Sportsman's Club reserves the right to assign a probationary member to a committee other than their preferred choice should the committees you indicated be full.

List Of Committees:

House and Grounds	Publicity
Range Control	Hunting and Fishing
Kitchen	Membership
Entertainment	Shooting Events
Ways and Means	Health and Safety

Choice #1.

Choice #2.

Choice #3.

Note: Probationary members have to complete five (5) work hours during the calendar year. Serving on an active committee counts towards your work hours.

Club Rules and Regulations

Failure to abide by club rules, regulations and by-laws may result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the New Haven Sportsman's Club. I further understand that any false statements on my membership application are grounds for immediate dismissal. In addition, should my membership be terminated for just cause by the executive board, I will forfeit all monies paid to the New Haven Sportsman's Club including membership, assessments and initiation fees.
